

Gerritt Steenhuis

7 Kings Hill Lane

Brantford, ON N3T 6A3

Phone: 519 865-0891

E-Mail: gesteenh@uwaterloo.ca

1B Mechanical Engineering, UW ID# 20518637

Summary of Qualifications

- Extensive knowledge of electric nut-runners, manipulators, and pneumatic guns advanced through working as an assembly worker at Toyota Motor Manufacturing Canada (TMMC)
- Experienced user of both the AutoCAD and SOLIDWORKS programs, developed through the ME 100 course
- Hard working and continuously focused on improvement, shown by winning the most improved employee award for two consecutive years at East Side Mario's
- Exposure to C++, Matlab, and RobotC gained through the ME 101 course
- Effective verbal and written communication skills enhanced through customer service as a takeout cashier and a member of the front of house support staff at East Side Mario's
- Excellent teamwork and practical design knowledge displayed through the re-design and installation of the rear tie rods for the Waterloo Hybrid student design team

Education

Candidate for Bachelor of Applied Science – Mechanical Engineering, University of Waterloo,
200 University Ave W, Waterloo, ON N2L 3G1, September 2014 – Present

- Awarded $2000 University of Waterloo President's Scholarship
- Awarded $1250 Scholarship from Toyota Engineering & Manufacturing North America, Inc.

Professional Experience

Assembly Worker

April 2014 – August 2014

Toyota Motor Manufacturing Canada, Woodstock ON

- Exceeded quality expectations and finished the work term with zero Delta C, or A-Ranked defects
- Maintained a clean work area in regards to TMMC's 5S standards (sort, straighten, shine, standardize, sustain)
- Displayed enthusiasm and initiative by requesting, and being the only student proficient enough to receive, a four job rotation
- Maintained a high level of safety by always wearing the required PPE for the job

Line Cook / Front of House Support

August 2010 – April 2014

East Side Mario's, Brantford ON

Policy Planning Assistant

February 2012 – June 2012

Brantford City Hall, Brantford ON

Volunteer Experience

December 2011 – Toyota Christmas Party (8 hours)

July 2011 – Toyota Family Fun Day (6 hours)

July 2010 – Group Work Camps, Gleaners and Brant Pregnancy Centre (25+ hours)

July 2009 – Group Work Camps, Grand Rapids, Michigan (25+ hours)